

2012 Florida Prosperity Partnership Annual Conference

May 30 - June 1, 2012

Loews Portofino Bay Hotel @ Universal Orlando

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Florida Prosperity Partnership (FPP), evolved from a number of parallel and earlier efforts to create a statewide coalition dedicated to building financial assets for low-to-moderate income residents. In the fall of 2008, the FPP became a formal entity and adopted the mission to “Establish a statewide collaboration of organizations holistically focused on providing life-enhancing services to Floridians.” FPP members have also united in statewide outreach efforts and advocacy for policy changes that will ease the burden for those Florida families struggling to make ends meet and have launched, through the leadership of Florida House Deputy Democratic Whip, Alan Williams, the Florida Prosperity Partnership with 20 Florida legislative members to date.

About the Conference Participants

Approximately 200 people are expected to attend the Fourth Annual Florida Prosperity Partnership Conference. Conference participants include Prosperity Coalition members, financial institutions, state and federal government leadership.

Exciting New Opportunity

This is a great time to get in on this event that has no prior branding affiliation with any other sponsor. Sponsoring the conference is an excellent opportunity for businesses to associate their organization with an event that will have a positive impact statewide and will have wide marketing reach and appeal.
